WOOD HAS GOOD LEAD

Harding, Meanwhile, Is Leading Major General In Ohio Primaries by 14,313 Votes

Newark, N. J., April 28.—Major General Leonard Wood had increased his lead over Senator Hiram W. Johnson of California to 582 votes in the New Jersey preferential presidential primary at 11 o'clock tonight. With the vote was: Wood, 51,342; Johnson, 50,760.

Seventy-six of the 87 missing districts were in counties in which Wood generally had substantial majorities in the incomplete returns. The complete figures probably will not be known until tomorrow afternoon as the votes of several outlying districts will not be available until they have been mailed or are being carried by messenger. Figures at hand indicate Wood has carried 14 and Johnson seven counties.

The Republican "Big Four" will consist of United States Senator Walter E. Edge and Joseph F. Freling-huysen pledged to the choice of the voters as expressed at the primaries; former Governor Edward C. Stokes and former acting Governor William N. Runtan, both pledged to Wood.

District contests indicate the election of 11 Wood, 10 Johnson and three unpledged delegates with several products missing in six districts.

The vote of the Republican "Big Four" with 58 districts missing, gave: Frelinghuysen, 60,196; Edge, 59,193; Stokes, 52,449; Runtan, 45,495; Raymond, 42,891; Ballard, 42,864; Layden, 42,434; and Griggs, 41,558.

Raymond and Griggs were pledged to Wood and Ballard and Layden to Johnson.

New York, April 28.—A. C. Jordan, eastern campaign manager for Senator Hiram W. Johnson of California, announced tonight he was going to concede to Major General Leonard Wood victory in the New Jersey preferential presidential primary.

He added that, even if Wood carried the state, the margin undoubtedly would be so small as to amount virtually to a victory for Johnson.

He entered New Jersey with no large and virtually no organization to battle one of the strongest political organizations in the country, the New Jersey Republican state organization.

He said, "Unless Wood wins by a very large majority it will be a serious blow to his campaign."

"We have won eight district delegates and possibly one delegate-at-large in the state. Under the circumstances and with only fragmentary reports we can see no reason for conceding a Wood victory in New Jersey."

Harding Ahead in Ohio.
Columbus, April 28.—With but 115 precincts out of 5,582 in the state missing, Senator Warren G. Harding tonight was leading Major General Leonard Wood by 14,313 votes for the Republican preferential preference in yesterday's primary figures.

At 10:00 o'clock the vote was: Harding, 122,486; Wood, 108,173.

Harry W. Dougherty, Harding campaign manager, who on the face of the returns appears to be defeated by William Boyd, Cleveland attorney and a Wood candidate for delegate at large, had cut Boyd's lead to 1,197. A total of 573 precincts are yet to be heard from in the delegate race.

STRIKERS OVERPOWER GUARD AND CREW ON ERIE FREIGHT

Hoboken, N. J., April 28.—Guards and members of a crew of an Erie freight train were overpowered here today by a crowd of between 20 and 100 alleged strikers who climbed upon the train when it was forced to slow down at a crossing.
One of the guards was slightly injured. The locomotive was uncoupled and the engineer was forced to drive the train to the Weehawken yards. Four strikers in the cab of the engine under the hood, when they were dropped off. Police in Jersey City and Hoboken were called and the train dispersed after damaging the tracks so that the train could not be moved for two hours.

APPROVES NAVAL BUDGET.

Washington, April 28.—The naval appropriation bills carrying approximately $152,000,000 for 1921 navy expenditures passed the senate late today without a record vote and were sent to congress for adjustment of $10,000,000 senate increase over the house bill total.

BARONZIO'S BATTERIES ACTIVE

Tampa, April 27.—(The Associated Press).—Gabriel D'Annunzio's battery opened fire yesterday evening on a Italian torpedo boat destroyer in the vicinity of Fiume, the shells of which were fired, fell 1,000 yards in front of the vessel. There were no casualties.

Hoboken Leader Wires Johnson of "Robbery"

Newark, N. J., April 28.—Charges that Senator Johnson had been "robbed" of the Republican preference for president in at least three counties of New Jersey were made tonight by William J. Verdon, Republican leader in Hoboken and one of the most enthusiastic Johnson supporters in the state. Mr.
Verdon made his allegations in a telegram sent to Senator Johnson in which he said, "You were robbed in Camden, Morris and Essex counties." He expressed the opinion that Johnson would win at least 11 of the 25 delegates.

ADMIT 15 SCIENTISTS TO NATIONAL ACADEMY

Each, To Be Eligible, Has Distinguished Himself in Scientific Research

Washington, April 28.—Fifteen scientists were elected to membership in the National Academy of Science at the closing session today of the society's annual meeting. The new members, each of whom must have distinguished himself in scientific research to be eligible are:

William Duane, Harvard university physicist; Dr. James Rowland Angell, psychologist and elected president recently of the Carnegie corporation; Wilder Dwight Bancroft, Cornell university, chemist; Dr. Bailey Willis, Leland Stanford university, geologist; Joel Stebbins, University of Illinois, astronomer; Hans F. Blichfeldt, Leland Stanford university, mathematician; Henry Arnsby, Pennsylvania college, chemist; A. J. Carlson, University of Chicago, physiologist; Louis R. Jones, University of Wisconsin, pathologist; Dr. George Washington Pierce, Harvard university, physician; Dr. Clarence Erwin McCullough, zoologist; Elmer Peter Kohler, Harvard university, chemist; Dr. Charles K. Leitch, University of Chicago, geologist; Elmer V. McCollum, Johns Hopkins university, chemist, and Harry J.
Ryan, Leland Stanford university, electrical engineer.

Dr. Frank D. Adams, president of McGill university of Canada, was elected a foreign associate member.

New members of the academy's council elected were Drs. Arthur L.
Day of Corning, N. Y., and T. H. Morgan of Columbia university.

SEEK NEW WHITE HOPE AMONG LUMBER JACKS

Tex O'Rourke, of International Sporting Club, Is Scouting for Pugilistic Timber

New Orleans, La., April 28.—Tex O'Rourke of New York, representing the International Sporting club, which, according to O'Rourke, plans to develop a "really representative" American champion heavyweight boxer, left here today from Bogalusa, La., to select several lumbermen for training.

The club, O'Rourke said, proposes to select a number of promising candidates from among the five "sren-uous" industries—lumbering, steel manufacturing, ship building, mining and farming—take them to a training camp near New York, pay their expenses and a salary at least 25 percent greater than they formerly received, and train them for a year.

At the end of that time, a series of elimination contests will determine the champion. O'Rourke said. The men's services he added, would not be commercialized and the candidate must be American born.

George Anthony Drexel-Biddle of Philadelphia is president of the International Sporting club.

GARMENT WORKER TESTIFIES

Tells Court Michaels, Stearns Company Sought His Assistance in Unionizing Its Workers.

Rochester, April 28.—That Mich-aels, Stearns and company asked him to induce its employees to join the United Garment Workers during the strike that had been called in its factory by the Amalgamated Garment Workers of America, was testified to by Alois P. Frank, then employed in the factory as a cutter, at today's session of the trial of the company's suit for $100,000 damages and a permanent injunction against the Amalgamated.

Arthur Stearns called him into the office one day, Frank said, and asked him if he could persuade the bunch to join the United Garment Workers of America. When he refused, Frank testified, Stearns told him he thought he was making a mistake.

SCIENTIST REPORT FINDINGS.

New York, April 28.—Supporting the manual of the mother church and the Christian Science organization as projected by Mary Baker Eddy, the church committee on general welfare after five months' investigation of the denominational affairs in Boston made public a majority and minority report today. The findings aggregate 18,000 words and are said to be "encouraging and constructive."

SEEK TO INDICT STRIKER LEADERS

Suit Will Be Based on Violation of Lever Act, Government

GRAND JURIES ASSIST

Brotherhoods and American Federation of Labor Are Absolved at Beginning

New York, April 28.—Indictments charging violations of the Lever act will be sought by the government against leaders of the railroad strike in the New York district, according to announcement tonight by assistant United States Attorney General Ames at the close of an investigation which he has been conducting into transportation strikes here.

Federal grand juries in New York and Newark will be asked to proceed against the strike leaders, Mr. Ames said. He asserted that department of justice agents have fully established the identity of these leaders.

Joseph L. Bodine, assistant United States attorney for New Jersey, who was present when Mr. Ames made his announcement, said the New Jersey federal grand jury is in session and ready to take immediate action.

Strike Conditions Improving.

None of the railroad strikers were summoned by the government investigator, it was stated. Mr. Ames said he was convinced that neither the brotherhood of railroad employees or the American Federation of Labor had been involved in the strike.

"The outlaw railroad strike situation seems to be improving steadily," Mr. Ames said, "and I do not think requires attention further than possible punishment for the violation of law."

Mr. Ames investigated the strike of coastwise longshoremen and of harbor workers and the charge of certain commercial interests that there is a combination of truckmen and fish handlers to boycott fish caught and consigned by non-union fishermen.
Conferences with the commercial interests affected by the various strikes and with representatives of the strikers and employers were held by Mr.
Ames.

A statement covering the scope of the investigation was issued tonight by Mr. Ames. "Concerning the longshoremen his statement said: 'I believe that the situation is possible of adjustment without legal proceedings by the department of justice and that an adjustment is far better than any legal remedy that may be applied.'"

Final Report at Settlement.

Therefore, before reaching any conclusion as to the course which the department of justice should pursue, I have requested the representatives of the merchants' associations, the Chamber of Commerce of the State of New York and the other Chambers of Commerce, with whom we have been in conference, to select a committee of representative citizens to make a final effort to settle the matter fairly to all the interests involved."

He expressed the belief that such a committee can reach a conclusion which can be accepted. Further action of the department of justice, he said, will depend upon the outcome of the negotiations.

"It was the duty of the men to resist to the legal and orderly processes set up by the law to adjust their dis-ferences," the statement said, "in discussing the strike of marine workers."
"This they did not do and therefore, the strike cannot be justified.
If the claims of the men are true, they could have been presented to the companies and thence to the board provided for by law. The men, therefore, we think, were not justified in this strike, and are not entitled to any relief except that provided by the transportation act."

Mr. Ames' statement said that his time had not permitted a personal investigation of the charge that truck-men and fish handlers had formed a combination to boycott fish caught and consigned by non-union fishermen, but that further consideration will be given it.

ALLEGES NEWSPRINT "CORNER"

New York Times Executive Manager Cites Reasons for "Absurdly" High Prices for Product.

Washington, April 28.—"Absurdly" high prices for newspaper paper bought on the stock market are due to a "corner" resulting naturally from the present shortage, George McAneny, executive manager of the New York Times, declared today before the senate committee investigating the paper situation. The market price is three or four times as much as that for paper bought under contract, he said.

Brokers and small manufacturers were blamed by Mr. McAneny for the high prices. Answering a question by Senator Reed, Democrat of Missouri, as to whether there was profiteering, he said, "they are selling the paper."

BUY STATE WANTS BEER.

Boston, April 28.—The house of representatives today passed a bill to make 2.75 per cent beer available for sale in this state, subject to federal legislation. The senate had previously passed the measure, which now goes to the governor.

BRING SOLDIER DEAD BACK FROM OVERSEAS

Bodies of 353 American Heroes Arrive in New York on Army Transport Mercury

New York, April 28.—The bodies of 353 American soldiers who gave their lives for their country, and of whom all but 80 died in France, arrived here today on the army transport Mercury from Antwerp and Southampton.

Included among the bodies, which marks the first return of soldier dead from France, were those of four officers, all second lieutenants. They were Marshall Wilson Jr., 32nd Aero squadron, of Bridgeport, Conn.; Rodger A. Bright, 107th Aero squadron, of Tombolton, Miss.; William F. Maren, Engineers' corps, of Big Springs, Texas, and Joseph F. McCarthy, quartermaster corps, Buffalo, N. Y.

Awaiting the arrival of the Mercury at the army piers in Hoboken was a detachment of the graves registration service. As soon as the 766 living army and civilian passengers who came home on the Mercury, were taken from the vessel, the bodies were removed from the hold of the ship and their caskets, shrouded under the cover of new American flags, were arranged in company formation on the pier.

Under a soldier guard of honor these caskets are being prepared for final shipment by rail to the places which they called "home." Each body will be accompanied by a uniformed guard of honor who will remain with his charge until the casket is lowered into its final resting place.

At the piers here there was no ceremony, no display, or ostentation, save colors at half mast and the bare walls of the temporary pier morgue hidden with the flags for which the men lived and died.

The body of Private Harold F. Turner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Turner of Oneonta, is believed to be among those returned by the Mercury.

JAPS REPORT REVOLT IN EASTERN SIBERIA

Massacre of Japanese Consul, Residents of Foreign Colony and Guards Rumored

Washington, April 28.—A serious upheaval in the district of Nikolaevsk, on the eastern coast of Siberia, far north of Vladivostok, is reported in an official statement issued by the Japanese foreign office received today by the state department.

With all communication cut off, the uprising is shrouded in more or less mystery, but the foreign office said that all reports received point to the conclusion that the Japanese guards in the district had been annihilated and several hundred Japanese residents, including the consul massacred.

The number of men in the guard was not given.

While the foreign office statement said conditions in this district had been assuming a serious aspect since the beginning of March, this was the first information to be received here that the situation in that particular part of Siberia was critical.

Because of the dispatching of a Japanese expedition to Nikolaevsk, the principal city of the district, located on the Non river, is impossible.
An expedition was started, however, on April 19 under escort of the warships and it reached Alexandrovsk, a port on the Siberian coast about 300 miles south of Nikolaevsk, on April 22, where it will remain until the ice breaks up.

BIG SUGAR PROFITS CAUSE TWO ARRESTS

"Flying Squadron" of Profiteer Hunters Round Up More
New York Dealers

New York, April 28.—On evidence procured by the government's "flying squadron" of profiteer hunters, the federal grand jury today indicted two firms for alleged profiteering in sugar, and a third on charges of asking illegal profit on potatoes.

Leon Israel and Brothers, Wall street brokers and importers, were charged with selling 500,000 pounds of sugar at 21 1/2 cents a pound, which they bought at 14 3/4 cents. The firm is said to have done a gross business of $25,000,000 last year.

Another transaction charged in the Israel indictment was a sale at 21 1/2 cents a pound of 200,000 pounds of sugar to E. R. Sherburne of E. R.
Sherburne company of New York and Boston, which the Israel firm is said to have bought at 15 1/2 cents.

The second sugar profiteering indictment was against E. R. Sherburne, who was charged with having sold 500,000 pounds of lump sugar to Joseph Reider of Brooklyn at 21 1/2 cents a pound which he was said to have bought at 16 1/2 cents.

Andrew Space, a New York commission merchant, was indicted on a charge of selling 45,000 pounds of potatoes at $13 a sack of 165 pounds, which he was said to have purchased at $2.44.

MINERS REJECT WAGE PROPOSAL

Anthracite Workers Refuse Operators Counter Offer of Increases Aggregating 15 %

SPURN ARBITRATION

Attempt to Break Deadlock Caused by Miners' Refusal, Will Be Made Today

New York, April 28.—Representatives of the anthracite mine workers have notified the operators that their counter offer of a wage increase ap-proximating 15 percent is rejected and decline to accept their proposal for arbitration, according to a statement issued here tonight by the subcommittee appointed to negotiate a new wage agreement for the hard coal workers.

The plan of arbitration submitted by the mine owners, it was learned, proposed that the subcommittee asked President Wilson to name three individuals representing the public to sit in with the committee and attempt to arbitrate the differences.

The presentation of the miners' reply resulted in a deadlock in the negotiations. The operators, however, asked that the committee take an adjournment until tomorrow at 12:30 o'clock.

Officials of the Mine workers declared tonight the only thing that would prevent a breaking off of negotiations would be the submission of an "acceptable" plan of arbitration or a more liberal counter offer covering their demands. The operators made no comment as to their plan.

Carter Charges "Conspiracy."

Washington, April 28.—"An apparent conspiracy exists to intimidate the railroad labor board into denying wage increases for railroad workers," W. S. Carter, president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers, declared today at hearings before the board.

"From the beginning," he said, "the press has been full of the idea that to raise the pay of railroad men will necessitate an immediate further advance in the cost of living and be simply another step in the so-called vicious circle of rising prices. There has been so much of this that it amounts to a conspiracy. If it is not actually a conspiracy, I protest that it shall not be permitted to render abortive our efforts to secure for the men, women and children we represent the relief that has been denied them for ten long months."

Mr. Carter urged that the board, after determining the new wages, should inform the public exactly what the effect will be on the prices of principal commodities when railroad rates are raised to meet the increased labor cost.

Timothy Shea, vice president of the Firemen's brotherhood, protested against the board receiving data from the railroads on the wage demands in the form of a questionnaire as suggested by E. T. Whiter, of the executive committee of the roads. This method of gathering information, he declared, would require months, adding that the limit had been reached by the railway workers, and nothing must postpone the board's decision.

Chairman Barton stated that the board was impressed with the necessity for quick action, but was entitled to all information on the subject that it considered necessary. Whether the roads will be permitted to file their questionnaires has not been decided.

WOULD SHARE MOTHER'S WILL

Suit For Third Interest in $5,000,000 Estate Sought by Daniel J.
Leary of Brooklyn

White Plains, April 28.—Suit for one-third share of his mother's $5-000,000 estate was begun before Supreme Court Justice Morschauser here today by Daniel J. Leary, president of the Brooklyn Dry Dock company.
Leary alleged that his mother failed to provide for him in her will, according to a prior agreement whereby it was contended he was to share equally with his brother, George, and his sister, Mary.

Former State Senator Albert A.
Wray, testified today that he was the Leary family's personal attorney for years and had drawn up the alleged prior agreement. Leary, in his suit, claimed undue influence in the making of the will, under the terms of which his brother and sister received the entire estate.

NEW MOTOR TRACK RECORD.

Daytona, Fla., April 28.—Tommy Milton today concluded his record breaking dashes at Daytona beach by covering the half mile in 11:57 seconds and the kilometer in 14:49 seconds. Today's new mark gave Milton all the speed records formerly held by Ralph DePalma. His trials were under the auspices of the American Automobile association.

AMERICANS WIN AT HOCKEY.

Antwerp, April 28.—America won second place in the Olympic hockey contest, defeating the Czech-Slavs tonight by a score of 15 to 9. The Americans scored almost at will. They will receive the prize tomorrow night.

Modern Bluebeard's Lair Found Near Cairo, Egypt

Cairo, Egypt, April 28.—The lair of a modern Bluebeard has been discovered at Ponta, 54 miles northwest of Cairo, noted for its Mohammedan festivals and fairs.
Women entered into a certain house on the pretext of meeting a wealthy admirer have been robbed of their jewels and then murdered. Afterwards their bodies were burned.
Except for their heads, 29 of which were found in the house.

URGE INSURANCE AS SOLDIER BONUS

If Adopted, Ex-Service Men Would Have Choice of Five Relief Schemes

Loan Values On Adjusted Service Certificates, Would Accruce in Three Years

Washington, April 28.—Republican members of the house ways and means committee virtually decided today to include in their soldier relief legislation a plan of paid-up insurance, its value to increase annually by compounded interest, and on which loans could be obtained from any post office.

With this addition, ex-service men might elect any one of the five following plans included in the Republican program: A cash bonus of $1.25 a day for each day of service; aid in buying farm land to be reclaimed by the government; aid in buying city homes; aid in their education; or the insurance. To popularize the last four plans, the Republicans propose to allow $1.75 a day for each day of service, instead of the $1.25 cash bonus as the basis for computing farm and home aid, loans and the amount of financial aid each man might receive in the form of educational training.

The insurance plan as such was said by committee to be a "misnomer" but they declared it was the "most attractive" of any of the five plans.
The average period of service for World war veterans was 400 days, they said, explaining that under the insurance plan the average veteran could receive a paid-up insurance policy of $1,857, payable to him in cash at the end of 20 years, or immediately to his heirs in the event of his death.

The loan value of the insurance—denoted in the legislation as "adjusted service certificates"—would not accrue until the end of the third year the plan had been in force, and at that time an ex-service man, with a record of 400 days' service, would be entitled to a loan of $551. This would be the cash value of his "certificate" at that time, at five per cent interest compounded annually.

Similarly, the veterans of 100 days would be entitled to paid endowment insurance of $464 with a cash surrender or loan value of $137 in three years; the 200-day veteran to insurance of $928 with a loan value of $275; the 300-day veteran to insurance of $1,392, with a loan value of $413, and the 500-day veteran to insurance of $2,321, with a loan value of $569.

This plan, if adopted universally by the World war veterans, would cost the government far more than the cash bonus of $1.25 a day, committeemen said. Estimating that 5,500,000 ex-service persons would be affected by the bill, committee men declared that the ultimate cost of the insurance plan, if adopted by all, would be approximately $6,000,000,000. The cash bonus, it was estimated, would cost $1,807,000,000, if accepted by all.

PLAN INVESTIGATION OF BUFFALO STRIKE

Governor Smith Names Special Mediation Board to Take Immediate Action

Buffalo, April 28.—Governor Smith today informed Edward D. Jackson, deputy state industrial commissioner, over the long distant telephone, that he had appointed a special mediator to investigate the strike which seriously threatened the early movement of grain through that port from upper lake ports. The board will consist of Edward S. Walsh, state superintendent of public works and a member of the state labor board; Edward J. Barcalo, also a member of the state labor board; Sydney Metters of Buffalo, and Mrs. Jackson.

The board will meet on Friday morning, T. V. O'Connor, international president of the Longshoremen's association, also is expected here on Friday.

The controversy now involves elevator house men whose demands for increased pay were refused by elevator owners; the grain handlers who have rejected the 1920 scale offered by the Lake Carriers' association, and the freemen and hessmen who refused to man tugs with lines on grain boats bound for elevators where non-union housemen are employed.

stopped the game between Boston and Philadelphia here today in the fourteenth inning with the score 7-7. Kinney's wildness and errors by Dykes helped the visitors to a lead in the early innings, but Jones weakened and a sensational holding by Foster prevented the locals from winning in the seventh and eighth. Doubles by Welch and Perkins tied the score in the latter inning. Boston had two on bases with none out in the twelfth but Martin struck out Hoover, McCall and Pinch-hitter Devine.

To See Vermont Varsity Play Ball.

Messrs. H. P. Weidman, E. D. House, Timothy Pool and James Dible depart this morning by automobile for Burlington, Vt., where they will witness the University of Vermont's base ball team in games Friday and Saturday and will probably sign some of the players for the Oneonta team for the coming summer.

Davis, the pitcher of last year's team, was in town last evening, and accepted terms for the coming season.

ON account of the higher cost of building, we have decided to offer for a short time only, any of our 150 building lots at West End, located either on Moffat plot, Elm park, Richards plot, or Shepherd plot at last year's prices. Choice of large, level, finely located lots at $500. Others as low as $150. Easy terms if wanted. Phone 555 or see Coperley & Morgan, 198 Main street, for further particulars. advt 1v

FORCE MANY STOCKS UNDER LOW RECORDS

Extensive Selling, Mainly Short Interests, Keeps Market Under Constant Pressure

New York, April 28.—The stock market was under almost constant pressure today, extensive selling for both accounts, but mainly the short interest, forcing many active issues under lowest prices of the previous week.

Professional traders made the most of such unfavorable factors as tight money, the failure of the U. S. Steel directors to increase the common dividend and the more discouraging industrial situation arising from the railroad strike. There seemed also to be some apprehension regarding possible labor disturbances rumors for the week-end.

Further suspension of operations at leading manufacturing centers was reported and the Iron Age, referred to the "great blow" to the steel trade caused by congested railroad conditions throughout the middle west.

The general list registered lowest prices of the session in the final hour when it became known that the federal authorities had petitioned the supreme court to re-open the dissolution suit recently decided in favor of the United States Steel corporation.

Extreme declines of two to 17 points were largely retrieved before the end, however, the rally following a drop in call loans of from ten to eight per cent and a substantial recovery in foreign exchange, especially the London rate. In several noteworthy cases actual gains were made, the market closing with a steadier tone on urgent coverings of short contracts.

Rumors of a probable merger of several independent steel companies, including Bethlehem, Lackawanna and Midvale, were again current, but lacked confirmation in authoritative quarters. Additional stock dividends were announced by several industrial concerns.

Liberty bonds and Victory notes closed at nominal gains or recessions, the general list showing no material change. Old U. S. bonds were unchanged on call.

Through All the Years—They Live!

See—

The riot at the "Royal Nonesuch"

The "Robber Band" at work

The liberation of Black Jim.

The inheritance hoax of the "Duke" and the "King."

The slave-hunters' chase through the night.

As real, as fresh, as appealingly human today as when Mark Twain—his eyes a-twinkle—called them from his heart and wrote them down forever in the world's greatest romance of youth.

Freckle-faced Huck Finn; Tom Sawyer, with his marvelous plans; "Pap" Finn and his jug of rum; those seedy old rascals, the "King" and the "Duke," Black Jim and sweet-faced Mary Jane.

Now, in this irresistible photoplay, they live before your very eyes—with all their charm, their escapades, their lovable, laughable ways.

A tale of other days on the Mississippi—Pulsing with a hundred immortal adventures—Mellowed with much laughter—Softened by a few tears.

MORRIS NEWS LETTER.

Two Well-Known Former Residents Claimed—Annual Church Meetings.

Morris, April 28.—The remains of Clark L. Kinnie, who died at his home in Syracuse on Tuesday, April 26, aged 63 years were brought here Thursday for burial in Hillington cemetery. Mr. Kinnie was born and brought up here and lived here until a few years ago, when he moved and lived in other places, finally locating in Syracuse, where he had got to be a man who was much respected and held public offices in that city. He is survived by his wife and one daughter. The burial service was in charge of the Masonic fraternity, of which he was a member, and was attended by a few relatives.

Mrs. Alonzo Tracey.

Mrs. Alonzo Tracey, another old time resident, died at the home of her son, Henry, near Rockdale, last Saturday, after a long illness. Mrs. Tracey resided at Elm Grove, near Morris, for many years with her children, Emma, Lee, Fred and Henry. Her body was brought here today for burial.

Convalescing.

E. M. Sloan, who has been housed up about two months with neuritis, has so far recovered as to be able to walk to the village again, but still is not able to work.

Mrs. L. A. Hewel, who has been confined to her house for several weeks, is able to be out again and attended church on Sunday.

Annual May Breakfast.

The Christian Endeavor society of the Baptist church will hold its annual May breakfast Saturday morning, May 1, at the church, commencing at 6 o'clock. These events have proved quite popular in past years and this one will probably be as well patronized as in former years.

Annual Church Meetings.

At the annual meeting of the Ladies Aid society of the Methodist Episcopal church, held last week, the following officers were elected: president, Mrs. Albert Smith; vice president, Mrs. E. S. Niles; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. A. S. Gifford.

Universalist Officers.

At the annual meeting of the Universalist society, held last Saturday afternoon, the following officers were elected: moderator, W. Scott Lull; clerk, Laverne Lull; treasurer, V. L. Curtis; collector, Mrs. V. L. Curtis; secretary and treasurer of Ladies Aid, Helen Colvin; ushers, Asa Sprague and Earl Bogart.

The following are the board of trustees: W. Scott Lull, two years; V. L. Curtis, three years; Ora Backus, three years.

The treasurer made his report and it showed, after paying all bills up to date, there was on hand $92.15.

Married in Harrisburg.

Perry Peters and his wife, formerly Miss Margaret Palma of Harrisburg, Pa., who were married in that city on March 26, were recent guests of Mr. Perry's mother, Mrs. Adelbert Lent, of this village.

AT WORCESTER FRIDAY.

Grange Will Give Supper for Benefit of Worcester Band.

Worcester, April 28.—The Worcester Grange will give a supper Friday evening in Grange hall for the benefit of the Worcester band. No admission will be charged, but a free will collection will be taken for the supper tickets. The band will give a concert during the evening.

Pastor's Salary Increased.

At a business meeting of the Baptist church, held last Thursday, it was unanimously voted to increase by $250 the salary of the pastor, Rev. C. L. Herrick.

To Lay Concrete Walk.

At a meeting of the town board last Friday afternoon, it was voted to lay a concrete walk on Depot street from Ray Vicker's line to the walk on Main street.

Real Estate Changes.

It is reported that James Schutt has purchased the residence on Maple street previously occupied by Mrs. Nellie Herdman. Also Mrs. Agnes McClatchy has sold her home on the Decatur street to William Ryder of Charlottesville. Possession given in fall.

Band Instructor.

Frank Robbins, band instructor of Worcester, will act as teacher for the Cobleskill band the coming summer.

Graham Stock Company Here.

The Graham stock company is producing a fine repertoire at the Welington Opera house this week.

LATELY FROM LAURENS.

To Observe Decoration Day on May 31—Danish Confirmation Service.

Laurens, April 28.—At the meeting of the Cemetery association, held with Mrs. William Fox last Thursday night, the ladies voted to observe Decoration day on Monday, May 31, as Decoration day comes on Sunday this year. They will serve a dinner in the Methodist church annex; adults, 50 cents; children under 12, 20 cents. Let all help, as thanks for the care of our cemetery.

Confirmation Service.

Sunday, at the regular Danish service, the minister confirmed a class, after which, with a fitting service, two of their returned soldier boys took down the service flag which was hung Desirable Property Sold.

David VanDyke has sold his house on the corner of Craft and Civil streets to Rev. C. Christensen, a Dane, who will occupy it at once. Mr. VanDyke will move his family into the hotel for the present.

Our Sick Improving.

The many friends of Welcome Parish, who has been seriously ill of pneumonia, will be pleased to learn he is a little better. Also Hiram Whitmarsh is improving from his illness.

News Items.

Charles Miller of Franklin is visiting Mrs. Clara Wickham. Mrs. Clara Seiber is visiting her daughter, Mrs. David Woods, of Utica. Mrs. S. A. Clark and Mrs. F. M. Newell were in Oneonta Tuesday. Mrs. Ed. Allen was a business caller in Oneonta Tuesday. Miss Mildred Pasley of Oneonta was at her home here Sunday.

Odd Fellows and Friends Enjoy Social Evening—O. E. S. Initiates.

Schenyus, April 28.—The local O. O. F. enjoyed a social evening at the lodge rooms Monday evening, the occasion being the one hundred first anniversary of the founding of the order. The families of members and the members of Wiontha Rebekah lodge were their guests.

Five Candidates Initiated.

A class of five candidates was initiated at the regular meeting of Schenyus chapter, 138, O. E. S. Tuesday evening. Refreshments were served and a pantomime, "School Days," added to the enjoyment of the occasion. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. VanLennan, Mrs. Burdick, Mrs. Spencer, Mrs. Finch, Mrs. Ribenberg, Mrs. Southworth and Mrs. Clark of Maryland.

Removals.

LeGrand Palmater will move his family to India the first of the week. Mr. and Mrs. John Grimes sr., who have spent the winter in Schenyus, will return to their residence in Chautauque, the first of May.

Local Mention.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Denmore of Corinth were guests of friends in town over the week-end. Mrs. Alice M. Bennett is spending some time in Hartwick, the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Henry Applin. Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Conell were called to Troy Sunday by the death of Mr. Conell's sister, Mrs. Shean.

HELPING THE FARMERS.

Preferential treatment will be granted on shipments of seeds, fertilizers, farm implements, spraying material and other commodities haddled on farms in New York state at this time, according to assurances given by the State Department of Agriculture and Markets by the traffic heads of the more important railroads operating in this state. Complaints by farmers were brought to the attention of the railroad men by Dr. Eugene H. Porter, state commissioner of foods and markets, at a conference covering railroad transportation of foodstuffs.
In spite of the lifting of the general embargo on freight for points other than New York city, the congested condition at transfer points called for concerted action on the part of all railroads if these products were to reach the farmers in time to prevent a serious shortage in next season's food supply.

As a result of the conference, orders have been issued by the railroads affected to expedite in every way the movement of these essential products.
Railroads which are co-operating in giving preference on the commodities named are: The New York Central lines, the Pennsylvania railroad, the New York, Ontario and Western, the Lehigh Valley, the Erie railroad, the Delaware and Hudson and the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad.

Agents of the division of foods and markets investigating the railroad situation found numerous instances where carloads of seed potatoes were being held up. At Maybrook, New York, there were 160 cars of seed potatoes lying in the railroad yards a week ago Saturday. These cars could not be moved because of the switchmen's strike, but finally by impressing the idle engines and firemen with the necessity for moving these seed potatoes in order to help next season's crop, they volunteered their services with the result that the yard was cleared of the seed potatoes within the 24 hours ending next morning.

This was only one of similar instances of conditions on railroads in the state pointed out by Commissioner Porter, who declares that the action of the railroad traffic men at their meeting was a most important step toward relieving a very bad situation threatening the food supply this fall.

THE HOLIDAYS OF MAY.

It will be of interest to readers to note that there are few if any months of the year which have more holidays in them, either general or merely state-wide, than does the month of May. The world over no less than twenty-five of the thirty-one days of the month are somewhere observed as a holiday, and in the United States there are six. The first of these is May 4, on which date California has by law made Presidential Primary day a legal holiday, albeit it comes but once in four years. The next is May 19, which as Confederate Memorial day, is observed in three states; and on May 12, Mothers' day is a holiday in New Mexico. On May 15, Peace day is observed in New Mexico and on May 20, comes the oldest of American Independence days—the date of the signing of the Mecklenburg declaration, observed in North Carolina.

Greatest of all, however, is Memorial day, which in forty of the states of the union, and in all the territorial possessions is observed. The states in which it is not observed are former rebel states, in which there are special days of memory for the Confederate dead; and even in Virginia, and Arkansas, May 29 is observed as a holiday.

RAILROAD RUMOR REVEALED.

Persistently stated that D. & H. L.
Negotiations for the U. & D.
Since the railroads were returned to to private ownership there has been a persistent rumor that the D. & H. company has acquired or is about to acquire the Ulster & Delaware railroad and to operate it in connection with its other lines. It is stated that the present owners have been unable to make the property more as good a showing as before the government took over the road and that there is an inclination to turn it over to the D. & H. company.

Whether or not its operation could be more economical, credited to the D. & H. company or whether it is operated the volume of business could be materially increased are questions that railroad men are not agreed upon. It is certain that if it were to pass to the control of the D. & H. company there would not be a question of a continuation of the innovation here nor would there be much doubt that the larger part of the cost repair work would be done in this city. The rumor is without verification but it persistently is circulated.

Going to Unadilla Friday.
The High School Dramatic club is to produce "Crops and Crappers" at the high school auditorium in Unadilla

STARVES CATTLE AGAIN

WILLIAM MEACHAM GIVEN FINE
OFFENSE.

Two Cows and One Calf So Emaciated They Were Shot When Mrs. Hyde Visited Farm in Burlington—Food For Animals Provided.

William Meacham, the rich Burlington farmer, who a year or so since was fined $15 for cruelty to animals, he having left his stock without proper food, was taken before Justice Fish of his home town again on Tuesday on the same charge and was required to give his check at once for $250, with which hay and grain for his horses and cattle could be purchased and was fined $50 and sentenced to six months in the Otsego jail.

When Mrs. W. T. Hyde of Cooper-town, the agent for the county of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, visited his farm, accompanied by State Troopers J. J. Cummingsham and Lafayette Holstein, she found the 30 odd head of cattle and two horses on the farm in a very emaciated and starving condition.
Two of the cows had been down so long unable to get up that their hind legs were paralyzed and they were beyond help. These with a calf, which was also very weak and apparently in a dying condition, were taken out and put out of their misery by the Troopers under the direction of Mrs. Hyde.

The condition of the animals was well right beyond description. Abcesses had formed upon some of them and there was such a dearth of food about the place that it was evident that they had been suffering for some time. It is said that Meacham is worth considerable property, owning, according to reports, four farms in the vicinity of his home. He had been living, it is stated, since the farmhouse on the farm he occupies burned, in one of the out buildings, one that would scarcely be considered fit for a good flock of hens. Some of the reports current in the community are to the effect that Meacham is quite miserly and that he refrains, except on rare occasions, from purchasing any food for himself, subsisting on what he can secure from his own premises. The case is one of the most astounding ever found in the country.

THE SCHOOL QUESTIONNAIRE.

What Teachers of Otsego County Say About Hot Lunches.

Very recently a questionnaire concerning the school lunch was sent out by the Home bureau to the teachers throughout the county of Otsego. The 40 replies received to date furnish interesting statistics regarding the serving of a hot dish with the rural school lunch.

The 41 schools included a total of 1,228 pupils, 656 of whom were bringing their lunch. The questionnaire brought out in many cases the lack of milk in the school lunch. In 23 schools no milk was included in the lunch brought from home, in four schools only a few brought milk, while the pupils in eight schools had from one-half to one pint per pupil.

Teachers in 20 schools are already serving a hot dish at noon which varies from toast, hot soup, or cocoa, to mashed potatoes with milk gravy, creamed dried beef, baked potatoes, etc. Eighteen teachers had no objections to serving a hot dish and expressed their willingness to do so if ways and means, as equipment and materials, were furnished. Only two teachers were unwilling to serve a hot dish.

The following quotations from the twenty teachers who are already serving a hot dish, express their enthusiasm and appreciation of the beneficial effect on the health of the children:
"The children take time to eat. Manners are taught and habits of cleanliness emphasized." "The pupils seem to enjoy their noon meal more and it certainly does them good to get something warm." "Pupils seem rosy and healthy, are seldom sick, and seem to enjoy their lunches more." "The children are more alert and eat more.
Both pupils and teacher feel more like work." "Pupils are brighter, more active, and show more concentration on school subjects." "Pupils do better work in the afternoon." "We think it pays in the health of the child." —

Cartoon Musical Show Coming.

"Kattenjammer Kids," the newest of all the cartoon musical comedies, an entertainment a little different from the average musical show for in it there are features that appeal to every class of theatregoer. There are features that were built for the amusement and entertainment of the Kiddies who have been delighted by the funny antics of the "Kattenjammer Kids" in the funny pages of the comic supplement. There is a big fashion plate chorus gowning in creations that will delight the ladies, and sorely the beauty of the girls who are the prettiest ever seen in any musical show, will interest the sterner sex.
"Kattenjammer Kids" will be the attraction at the Oneonta theatre, matinee and night, Wednesday, May

ASKS AUTHORITY TO BOND

New York State Gas and Electric Corporation Would Issue Securities and Raise Money for Improvements.

Application was made before the State Public Service commission, Second district, in Albany yesterday by the New York State Gas and Electric corporation for authority to make certain transfer of properties, including the Standard company of Unadilla, and to make a mortgage and to issue bonds to give proceeds of $2-665,440. Along with the petition goes a list of purposes for which the money is to be expended, among them being purchase of generators, engine and boiler at Norwich, sub-stations at many places, including Oneonta, Norwich and Sidney, with transformers with aggregate capacity of 6,500 k. v., construction of transmission lines, one of them from Norwich to Sidney and Oneonta, and for the refunding of certain outstanding obligations.

"The company's Norwich and Oneonta plants," the application says, "are to be hooked together by a transmission line through the Standard company's territory, thereby making available surplus water power of the Standard company for future developments and reducing coal demands at steam generating plants at Oneonta, Sidney and Norwich."

In support of its petition, the company says it is becoming increasingly difficult for small, isolated plants to operate and finance themselves and that adequate service and meeting the reasonable demands of the public can only be secured by cooperative effort.

Return with Four Cleveland Cars.

Charles A. Francis and J. P. Simmons of the Francis Motor Sales company, together with E. O. Jewell of Milford and George Conklin of Cooperstown, have returned from the factory of the Cleveland Automobile company, Cleveland, Ohio, driving in four new Cleveland cars.

They report fairly good road conditions all the way, and also report that one puncture was the total amount of trouble experienced on the entire trip.
These cars have all been allotted, but it is expected that there will be some more Cleveland cars driven in within the next two weeks or sooner, if it is possible to secure them from the factory.

Succeeds Edmunds.

H. D. Becker, general foreman of the Delaware and Hudson railroad at Colonie, has been promoted to shop superintendent there to succeed G. S.
Edmonds, recently appointed to fill the place of the late James H. Manning, superintendent of motive power.
Mr. Becker has been in the employ of the Delaware and Hudson as general foreman since 1915, after having been connected with the Lehigh Valley railroad for six years.

William Carrington was displaying a fine catch of trout to his friends last evening. There were 16 of the speckled beauties in the catch and they several of them being around the 15-inch mark. When asked where he made his catch, "Bill" replied: "In the brook."

INDICTED FOR WHITE SLAVERY

HARRY CORNELL OF NORWICH TAKEN TO SYRACUSE TO FACE U. S. COURT.

Brought 15-Year-Old Guilford Girl to Oneonta, Where They Remained for Several Weeks, and Then Went to Scranton—Man Arrested in Brooklyn on Information Furnished by Wife.

Harry C. Cornell of Norwich, who for a few weeks during the past winter made his home in Oneonta, has been indicted by the United States grand jury at Syracuse on the charge of violating the Mann White Slave act.
Cornell has been confined in the Broome county jail for several weeks, but on Tuesday was taken to Syracuse by Deputy United States Marshal George Van Valkenburg, where he will be arraigned before Judge H.
B. Howe of Vermont, who is presiding at the Syracuse term.

It is alleged in the indictment that Cornell, 25 years old and married, and 15-year-old Agnes Young of Guilford, departed from the latter's home several months ago and came to Oneonta, where for several weeks he was employed in the D. & H. yards and elsewhere in this city. He was not under police observation here, as those who became acquainted with him were given to understand that the girl with him was his wife. After evidently, tiring of life in this city, Cornell took the girl to Scranton, Pa., the purpose of the trip, according to the authorities, being to allow Cornell to establish a residence in Pennsylvania and then obtain a divorce from his wife. About the time they went to Scranton, Cornell's wife lodged a non-support charge against him, and through the efforts of Norwich policemen and information furnished by his wife his whereabouts were learned.
At that time, Cornell and Miss Young were living in Brooklyn, and it was there that Capt. J. B. Lewis, of the Norwich police force, arrested him, and brought him to Norwich.

After a further investigation, department of justice agents were called into the case, resulting in a charge for violation of the Mann act being placed against Cornell. He was arraigned before U. S. Commissioner Hanagan of Norwich, held for the United States grand jury, which body indicted him, and he now faces a term at Atlanta.

The girl on Monday told her story to the federal grand jury in Syracuse and said that although she had been tricked by Cornell, she still loved him and hopes to marry him if he is able to get free from his wife.

LOCAL MENTION.

—Campbell Bros. have sold to Fred Archer his fine residence at S. Taft avenue to Dr. Morton E. Brownell. Possession May 16.

—The Oneonta Bill Posting company has recently erected a new bill board opposite the union station. With commendable public spirit one of the spaces bears the words, "Welcome to Oneonta."

—Dr. Rowe, a missionary from Africa, will give a talk at the regular weekly prayer service of the First Methodist church this evening, to which all are invited. Stereophon pictures will be used.

—The Orpheus male quartet, a young musical organization that is rapidly growing in popularity among Oneontans, is arranging to give a public concert in the Municipal hall on Friday evening, May 14.

—A meeting of the First Presbyterian church and society will be held this evening at 7:30 in the church parlors, at which it is hoped there will be a representative attendance, as there is important business to transact.

—The D. & H. company is just at present having a rush of northbound business, gratifying alike to the officials and to the men, the latter especially feeling the effects of the recent shipments during the recent strike.

—Many favorable comments are heard not only of the quality of the Purty ice cream manufactured by the Oneonta Ice cream company but of the service the company renders its patrons. Local dealers are certainly to a very large extent being loyal to the house concern, securing mean-while a product that is giving the best of satisfaction.

RELATION OF BIRDS TO MAN.

Distinguished American Ornithologist in Oneonta Friday.

The attention of residents of Oneonta and vicinity, and in particular of every genuine lover of birds, is called to the fact that on Friday evening of this week a genuine bird man—Dr. A. A. Allen, professor of ornithology in Cornell university—will speak on "The Relation of Birds to Man" at the high school auditorium. Dr. Allen, who is one of the best authorities on feathered folk in the United States, comes under the auspices of the Burroughs club, which is to be congratulated on its good fortune in securing his presence. Admission is free and all are most cordially invited to attend.

Wearing Overalls in Oneonta.

If it will stop the reckless waste of money by state and nation and make people think of their extravagance and lack of thrift; for Heaven's sake, let's all wear them. For 21 years I've been trying to make people think and have thus helped over 2000 of them to safely make their small amounts roll up to several million dollars, at six percent compound interest and am still on the job. Wearing overalls and cutting out the keeping up with the Joneses, together with my three safe ways, adapted to all needs, of making small amounts get homes and farms, can be made to reduce the high cost of living and stop unrest. Let's try it. I am the safe and sane Oneonta Building and Loan association. advt 11

HIGHER FARE IN ONEONTA.

Public Service Permits Increase to Seven Cents in City.

Albany, April 23. — The Public Service commission, second district, under a decision today, ordered that the maximum fare to be charged by the Southern New York Power & Railway corporation in Oneonta shall be seven cents, the increased rate to become effective on five days' notice. The order also provides that the decision may be reopened when it appears to the Commission that the reason for permitting the higher fare no longer exists.

There was no objection to the company's application at a hearing before Public Service Commissioner John A. Barthe, the Chamber of Commerce, the mayor and corporation counsel of Oneonta having been notified of the company's application and hearing. The company was given permission to increase its fare rate outside of Oneonta live in 1918 and under the evidence given at the hearing, it was shown that there was a loss from operation in Oneonta in 1919 of $19,428. There were 609,233 passengers carried on a five cent fare. Commissioner Barthe says an increase in fare usually results in a decrease in patronage but if it is assumed that the number of passengers with the seven cent fare is the same as in 1918, the company will add to its income in Oneonta $12,184 which will leave a deficit from operation in that city of $6,852 a year, with estimated net income of $40,422.

TO VISIT OLD HOME TOWN.

During the month of June, former residents of Oneonta now residing in New York city and its environs, are planning to make a week-end visit for an outing in this city. The arrangements are in the hands of the officers of the Klippanockie club, composed of old Oneonta boys now in the metropolis. A meeting will be held in New York this week to make preliminary plans and if possible to determine the date so that it can be announced here. It is the intention of residents of this city to make this home coming of old Oneonta boys an enjoyable event and doubtless as soon as the date is definitely announced committees will be announced and the active preparation for their reception made. Indications that the attendance will be large are manifested and the city will beyond doubt make their stay here one not soon forgotten.

STAR MATINEE FOR KIDDIES.

Special Arbor Day Performance of Huckleberry Finn Friday Afternoon.

In order that every kiddie may have an opportunity to witness "Huckleberry Finn" The Star has arranged with the management of the Oneonta theatre to issue in the paper of Friday a "cut rate" coupon for the "Arbor Day" matinee, Friday, April 30th, which when presented at the Oneonta theatre with 11c that afternoon will admit any scholar or student under 15 years of age. Without the coupon the regular price of admission to children, 17c, will prevail.

Every kiddie knows the life that "Huck" and "Tom" lived and will want to see them in the picture. No cleaner or more wholesome stories than those of Mark Twain can be found and here's the chance for the little folks to see "Huckleberry Finn" at a reduced price.

See the Oneonta theatre advertisement in The Star tomorrow and clip the coupon.

WILBER RESIDENCE SOLD

ATTORNEY JAMES J. BYARD JR. OF COOPERSTOWN TAKES TITLE THIS WEEK.

Purchaser Hopes to Interest Oneonta Citizens With Him in Developing Property for Business Purposes—Frontage on Main Street of 80 Feet.

Attorney James J. Byard Jr. of Cooperstown has purchased of Mrs. Myra Wilber the property at the corner of Main street and Ford avenue, long known as the Wilber residence. For many years the question, Who has bought the Wilber house? has rivalled locally. How old is Ann? For several days the rumor has been current that the property had been sold but no confirmation could be secured locally. Last evening Mr. Byard confirmed the rumor in telephonic conversation with this office and stated that he expects to take title to the property this week. Deed will be given as soon as the attorney for Mrs. Wilber presents clear title with search. Mrs. Wilber, who has been spending several months at The Oneonta, went to Cooperstown yesterday to facilitate the completion of her papers and effect a speedy closing of the transfer.

This is considered one of the most valuable corner lots in the city and the price is said to have been about $32,000. It has a frontage on Main street of 80 feet and a depth of 155 feet. Contrary to reports current in the city for years, there are no entailments or restrictions upon the development of the property for business or commercial purposes. The house was erected in the eighties and efforts heretofore to acquire the property for business purposes have proven futile.

When questioned relative to his plans for development, Mr. Byard stated over the phone that he hoped to interest with himself others, Oneonta citizens if possible, and erect business blocks upon the Main street frontage. Your city is in need of stores and this location is excellent. The plans in contemplation provide for moving the residence to the rear of the lot and facing it on Ford avenue and then utilizing the Main street frontage for business places. This will give a depth sufficient for buildings of 30 or 100 feet deep. Mr. Byard intimated during the conversation that the Main street frontage could be purchased for one or more stores by any interested party.

This marks another of the stages of transition of Oneonta from a thriving country town to a prosperous young city, eliminating from the residential class nearly the last desirable corner near the center. When occupied by stores, it will have the influence in raising the value of realty not classed as in the very heart of the business section.

READY FOR CLEAN-UP WEEK.

All Rejoicing That Water Street is To Be Cleaned Up.

Clean-Up Week, beginning Monday, May 3, already promises to exceed all past efforts in that line. The announcement that Water street is to be cleaned up has been hailed on all sides and will set a pattern to all property owners to get busy and put the city beyond all danger of an epidemic of any kind. Tuberculosis and other germ diseases are generally brought about by dirt and filth. Influenza, typhoid, pneumonia exist because dirt exists. Cleanliness, thrift and civic pride are hand-maidens and are essential toward making a city healthy and prosperous. Scout Commissioner Williamson and Scout Master Engler met with Dr. Ford's committee at the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce Wednesday and plans were arranged for the Boy Scouts to deliver personal notices to every household in the city that they are expected to cooperate in the general clean-up movement. The Scouts will meet at the office of The Star at 5 o'clock Saturday morning, where Frank Hill, advertising manager of The Star, will start the boys out on their pilgrimage of carrying the tidings into every home in the city that clean-up operations begin on Monday next and everybody is expected to do his or her part in the movement. Tin cans, ties, refuse, dirt, waste paper, unsightly buildings, unpainted surfaces are under the ban. The drive is on. It won't be stopped. Get an early start on Monday.

Your Clothes Introduce You To Everyone You Meet.

Some clothes say: "Mrs. Smith, I want to introduce you to this lady. You can judge of her character from the fact that she wears me."

"Do you notice the narrow belt, the braid trimmings, the number of buttons of my suit? That means she is stylish."

"Do you notice the snug fit of the shoulders and the way the collar fits close to the back of the neck? That means she has been careful of the tailoring."

"Do you notice the fine grade of Tricotine, the care with which the button holes are made, the quality of the buttons? That means she didn't pay a small price for me, but that she exercised true economy. I shall outwear three outfits of cheap clothes."

"She is stylish, neat, careful. She appreciates beauty. She knows value. Her home is probably just as attractive as her clothes. The same characteristics are undoubtedly reflected in everything about her. She is a person you would like to know better."

And some clothes don't say this at all.

Allen H. Green, Civil War Veteran, Receives the Last Call.

West Oneonta, April 28. — Allen H. Green, 79 years old, died this morning at his home two miles out of the city after a week's illness. Although Mr. Green had been in failing health for some time past, his death was the direct result of an accident he suffered last week, when he fell down the cellar stairs in his home. Although no bones were broken, the fall was too much for a man of his age. Despite his advanced years, Mr. Green had retained his intellect, remarkably for the past several years, and was keenly interested in events of the day.

Mr. Green was born in Onondaga county on April 4, 1874, a son of Clark and Fiebelore (Giles) Green, and most of his life was spent in this vicinity. He was twice married, his first wife being Venarous Cook, and his second, Jennie Stitts. He was a farmer during his active career, and was beloved and respected by all who knew him. During the Civil war he joined the colors and served his country faithfully during the trying days of '62 and '63.

Besides his wife, Mr. Green is survived by seven children, Thaddeus, Charles, Emory and Harvey Green, all of West Oneonta; Ira and William Green of Hartwick; and Mrs. Nettie Brown of Cooperstown; two brothers, Wheeler Green of Hartwick and Ezra Green of Mt. Vernon; two sisters, Mrs. W. Ranner of West Oneonta and Mrs. H. Spoor of Coudersport, Pa.; and by 10 grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

Funeral services for Mr. Green will be held Friday afternoon at the late home, at 2 o'clock. Burial will be in the Green cemetery at West Oneonta.

MARRIED AT ST. MARY'S.

Miss Florence A. Farone Is Bride of G. C. Micco in Pretty Ceremony.

A pretty church wedding took place yesterday afternoon at 1 o'clock at St. Mary's, when Gattano G. Micco and Miss Florence Anna Farone, both of this city, were united in marriage by Father Noonan in the presence of a large congregation. The couple were attended by Miss Eda Farone, a cousin of the bride, as maid of honor, and Anthony Chivorelli as best man. The bride was becomingly gowned in a dress of white tulle, trimmed with orange blossoms and silver leaf, and she carried a beautiful shower bouquet of bride's roses. The maid of honor wore a gown of yelloworgette and carried a basket of roses. The music was in charge of Miss Hayes, organist, and Mr. Smaldone, violinist.

Following the ceremony, a delicious wedding luncheon was served to the bridal party at the couple's home, 47 South Main street, and late in the afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Micco left on a two weeks' honeymoon trip to nearby points. Upon their return they will reside at 47 South Main street.

The bride, who is the daughter of Daniel Farone, has lived in Oneonta most of her life and is a young woman with many friends. She attended the Oneonta High school. Mr. Micco came here a short time ago from Schenectady and is a painter by trade.

An evidence of the general esteem in which the bride is held in Oneonta was the large number of wedding presents, which included silver, cut glass, money, etc. Hearty congratulations for a long and happy married life will be extended Mr. and Mrs. Micco.

If you want to buy a house, look around and then come and see George Anderson, 245 Chestnut street. adv 17

Life Is Merry for Chinese Typesetter; All He Has Is 25,000-Letter Alphabet

English Seems to Him Far Less Complex Than His Own Language.—Many of His Countrymen Eagerly Learning Western Tongues, Survey by Interchurch World Movement Shows.

If we are forced into admiration for the Chinese who are able to interpret their own laundry checks, how much more we must grant these proud queue owners who are setting Chinese type. Chinese type is very large in comparison with English letters, most of the type used in books and newspapers being at least one-quarter inch in height.

25,000 different characters, and the type-setter must know where to find even the least frequent letters. Through the mission schools of the Protestant Churches of the United States, according to surveys recently made by the Interchurch World Movement, the Chinese have heard of much less laborious methods, and are eagerly learning the English language, which to them seems far less complex than their own.

FAVOR TO KINGS IRKS SWISS

Waiver of Customs Rules at Frontier Sharply Criticized by Newspapers.

Geneva, Switzerland.—An order issued to the troops and customs officials guarding the Swiss-German frontier that if the former kings of Bavaria and Württemberg and the former grand duke of Baden desire to enter Switzerland with their suites all frontier formalities must be waived in their favor is causing considerable discussion in the Swiss newspapers. The order says the former monarchs and the one-time grand duke may come into Switzerland without being subjected to the usual procedure at the frontier.

One of the newspapers in criticizing the order asks whether the Swiss government is democratic or monarchistic.

Beneficent Work of the "Flu."
Jackson, O.—Thirteen years ago Charles Holcomb lost his speech during an illness. He was drafted for service in the war but because he was dumb, was rejected. When he told his mother he was able to talk, she suffered nervous prostration from the shock.

The Wonders of America

"THE CATHEDRAL OF COMMERCE"

THE Woolworth building, New York city, the highest office building in all the world, is often referred to as "The Cathedral of Commerce." This marvelous building is 792 feet or 60 stories tall. About 8,000,000 human beings reside within the bird's-eye view visible from the observation gallery on the fifty-eighth floor. This view, so unusual, so wonderful, has attracted representatives from more than sixty different countries.

About four hundred feet of the outside of the upper portion of the tower is flood lighted at night. This causes the building to present a bold and imposing spectacle—visible, "it is said, 40 miles at sea. The structure weighs 223,000 tons, this tremendous weight being supported by 60 caissons, the largest 19 feet in diameter, all going down to bed rock or 110 feet below the sidewalk. Engineers claim its construction is so solid and safe that it would withstand a wind having a velocity of 200 miles per hour.

About 250 people are required to operate and maintain the building, which contains almost thirty acres of floor space. The tenants and their employees number about ten thousand. To serve them and those who enter to transact business with them, 23 elevators are required. About 25,000 people, on an average, ride in them daily. Approximately 250,000 pieces of mail matter are delivered in the building daily. The two elevators which operate to the tower are the fastest elevators in the world, having a speed of 700 feet per minute.

"This poor fellow is in a terrible condition," said the visitor.
"Yes," replied the asylum attendant. "He's the most violent patient we have in this ward."

"What caused him to lose his mind?"

How to Live

Common Sense Comments on Health, Happiness and Longevity

By GEORGE F. BUTLER, A. M., M. D.

Copyright, 1919, by International Press Service

CLEANLINESS

Cleanliness is next to godliness, but it takes many godly people a long time to "get next." All know that emanations are constantly passing from the body, its impurities, its deadly waste matter, which nature has no use for and which she is constantly trying to pass off by the pores of the skin. The average number of these for each square inch of the body is estimated to be two thousand and five hundred, or seven millions in all, making if joined together, a canal 23 miles long, which conducts from the system every twenty-four hours in the state of sensible perspiration, or water called "sweat," or insensible perspiration called "repor," three pounds and a half from one person in the ordinary occupations of life, and much more in extraordinary callings.

The sensible perspiration from a sleeper during the night is enough to bathe the atmosphere of a whole room; and it is the breathing and re-breathing of an atmosphere thus contaminated which makes the night the time of attack of the great majority of violent human ailments; it is this which fires the train of impending disease and which might have been deferred, if not entirely warded off if the sleepers and the bedchamber had been clean. In addition to the excretion of unclean or poisonous waste matter from the body, there may be deposited on the hands and other portions of the body disease germs which may endanger health. Food is frequently contaminated by disease germs from the unclean hands of people. No one who is sick with an infectious disease or who is just recovering from such a disease should have anything to do with the handling or the preparation of foods. Tainted foods are worse than tainted money. It is necessary to take pains to keep the skin clean by a daily bath. It is unnecessary to use soap every time save on exposed parts of the body.

Water is even more essential to the inside of a man than to the outside. Water constitutes more than one fourth of the bulk of the body, and all the functions of life are really carried on in a water bath; and, although the sense of thirst may be trusted to call for a glass of water when required, the fluid can be drunk most advantageously for many reasons besides mere satisfying of thirst. Digestion is much facilitated by drinking water; and there is no good reason why you should not drink water with meals as well as between meals. The habit of drinking water in moderate quantities between meals contributes to health, and indicates the fact that those who visit resorts for the purpose of drinking the waters of mineral springs might profit by staying at home and drinking more water. When water is taken into an empty stomach, it quickly passes into the circulation to liquify solids, whose excretion from the system is thus facilitated. Very few people think of the necessity of washing the inside as well as the outside of the body, and he who would be perfectly healthy should be as careful about the cleanliness of his stomach and bowels as of his skin. "Clean out, clean up, and keep clean!" It is so easy to obey the laws of health! You should revere your body, revere it in deeds, not sentiment alone. Warm it with good food. Ventilate it with fresh air. Cleanse it with hearty exercise and daily baths. LEARN HOW TO LIVE.

In all likelihood the man who toils and toils at business, without rest, relaxation and enjoyment, through the best years of life, with the hope of retiring at last and making the evening of life all holiday, all play, will never retire, except into an untimely grave.

Teach yourself that sleep is a duty, that it is not an accident, an incident, or a bit of good fortune; and you will be able to resist the temptation to carry on the business of the day in the hours of the night, hours which are reserved for a very different affair.

There are too many Esau's who sell their birthright of health for a mess of porridge, and it is difficult to realize how much of the suffering and ill humor of life is due to not having learned how to live simply.

No man can be truly happy who cannot contentedly sit still when circumstances release his powers from labor, and who does not reckon among the rewards of labor a peaceful repose.

The mind that never rests is invariably full of fancies and caprices. The mind that has no repose shows its dependence and its lack of self-control.

Health is so necessary to all the duties as well as pleasures of life that we should be willing to do anything that will help to keep us well.

Plant That Coughs

Botanists have records of carnivorous plants which eat even mice; there are laughing and weeping flowers; and now, according to the Journal de la Science, there is in the tropics a "coughing plant." Its fruit is like the common bean. It is easily aroused to anger, and what is more strange, has a horror of all kinds of dust. As soon as a few grains fall on the leaves the stomates or air cells, which are the breathing organs, fill with gas, puff out and throw off the dust with slight explosions like the cough of a child.

Man Weighed 658 When He Started in on Reducing.

Emory Tutman used to be a fat man; in fact he was so fat that when he got into a little difficulty with the law in New York it was impossible to find a cell big enough to accommodate him; but now he weighs a mere 440 pounds, which is trifling compared with his former figure of 658.

Emory says the secret of reduction is simple. He attained his present severe proportions by means of a few months' work in a Turkish bath and is willing to bet he will be down to 400 by July 1. Physicians say that the loss of 223 pounds since last fall has not affected Tutman's health in the least.

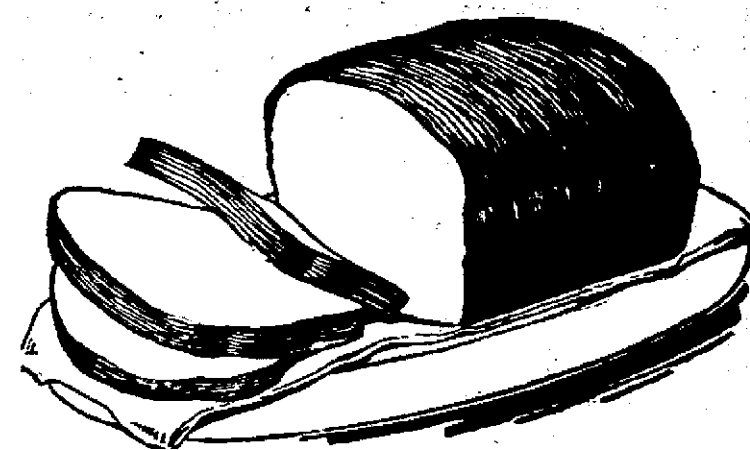

British Coal Abundant

For her size, Great Britain has more and better coal than any other country in the world. The coal seams, lying one below another to an unknown depth, not infrequently cropping out at the surface, are proof that tropical conditions once prevailed in the latitude of these islands. The district which is now Great Britain was connected in primeval times with the continent, and the coal of England doubtless runs under the channel and the southern part of the North sea, continuing in the coal fields of northern France, Belgium and Flanders.

You Can't Help Liking This Range

The GOLD MEDAL GLENWOOD is in reality a combination range consisting of two complete ranges using different fuels, with neither one interfering in any manner with the other.

Coal supplies the fuel for one, and gas for the other. So far as the use of these two fuels is concerned, it is exactly as though you had a coal range and a gas range. The difference is that they occupy the same floor space instead of being two separate ranges in two different parts of the kitchen.

You may use the coal and the gas at the same time, or either one without the other. You have gas in warm weather and coal in cold weather. But at any time you wish to do more baking or more cooking, you have the advantage of using both fuels and both ovens at the same time.

It responds to your cooking art so quickly and efficiently, you will find that cooking is one of the greatest pleasures in your home.

ARE NOT "SISSIES"

Mrs. Clarice M. Baright, a practicing attorney of New York, takes exception to statement by a Chicago physician, William J. Hickson and F. H. J. Guardia, president of the New York board of aldermen, who agree that American men are being made "sissies" by modern women—she says the latter day men are as "manly" as ever, so there.

Time's Changes in Bisbee.
Bisbee, Ariz., where is now heard the honk of the modern automobile, the tick of wrist watches and the wall of silk hose of all colors extending over the tops of $15 shoes, was entirely different 16 years ago, reminisces a writer in the Review of Bisbee. Then the hard-working miner had to struggle for hours to get a seat at a poker table or a "look in" at a faro game. Main street was once one of the liveliest thoroughfares in the western hemisphere, saloons, gilded and otherwise, having been the honored business enterprises which lined both sides of the street. If anybody had predicted that a street railway would at some future time run through the center of Main street, or that it would some day become as dry and arid as the Sahara and Gobi deserts, he would immediately have been taken before a lunacy commission.

Had Him Sized Up.
Robert's mother warned him to be careful not to offend the new boy who had a few days before moved into the flat in the rear, she saying: "He is a bad fighter." Robert replied: "I've tried him already. He has more bluff in him than the real stuff."

Literature.
True literature, like happiness, is ever a by-product; it is the half-conscious expression of a man greatly engaged in some other undertaking; it is the song of one working.—David Grayson.

If winter has left you dull, headachy, weak, weary, run-down, sickly and depressed, it has also left the "remedy" open for disease germs to easily enter and make your system and cause really serious, depressing conditions to follow.

Spring is the time to look after your body. It is a hard, now an attack of cold, cough, croup, and influenza, or even a more serious organ to maintain or restore their normal, natural functions you are now, as evidenced by the prevalence of these diseases of health activity and life.

SEA SCAVENGER FRIEND OF MAN

Expert Says Sharks Can Supply Good Food and Fine Leather.

FLESH HAS DELICATE FLAVOR

Scientist Gives Some Interesting Information About Fish Which Seems to Have Been Grossly Libeled—Particular About Food.

New York.—From time immemorial the shark has been considered as an enemy to man and a scavenger of the sea. He has been pictured as the cannibal of the deep, and in fiction has been painted as the monster who lurks about the ill-fated ship in order to devour the unfortunates who may have met their death in a gale or on the reef. We, therefore, for generations have cherished an antipathy for this creature of the sea and have been very willing to accept as fact all of these stories, never stopping to consider that perhaps after all the shark might have a few points in his favor.

To begin with, the shark does not live exclusively on the flesh of man, says Dr. Allen Rogers of Pratt Institute, Brooklyn, in the current number of the Journal of Industrial and Engineering Chemistry of the American Chemical Society. In fact, there are only a few species who would eat human flesh, even if it were possible for them to secure it. The principal species considered a man eater, the tiger shark, probably has seldom had the pleasure of this delicacy. Sharks, like all other fish, live on the smaller fish, thus upholding the proverb that the big fish eat the little ones.

Sharks Devour Food Fish.
Sharks travel in schools or singly and are found most abundant where food fish are plentiful. They are especially fond of the mullet, menhaden, mackerel and sea trout. Thus it will be seen that they are migratory and at various seasons are found in different waters. They are naturally warm-water fish, which accounts for the large number to be found in the Gulf of Mexico, along the coast of Florida and the West Indies. Being rapid and powerful swimmers, they often follow ships for hundreds of miles, picking up food as it is thrown over the side of the vessel. Thus their diet at such times is not unlike that of our domestic hog and poultry. It is claimed by fisher folk that the shark will not eat unsound food, which shows him even more particular than our friend the porker. Why, then, if he is so clean in his habits of life, should we discriminate against him?

The bureau of fisheries for several years has endeavored to interest the people in this country in using shark meat as an edible product, with a certain amount of success. In fact, that species of shark known as the dog fish is being canned in large quantities and sold under the name of gray fish. Certain fisheries on the New England coast are removing the head, tail and fins and selling the product in Boston and New York as deep-sea sword fish.

Italians Eat 'Em.
In Boston, also shark meat is being sold as such to the Italian trade, who appreciate its food value and enjoy its delicate flavor. Why, then, should we not take a lesson from the Italians and acquire the shark-eating habit?

For the last five or six years the writer has been interested in developing a method for converting shark skins into a merchantable leather. As a result of this work several processes have been devised which have been assigned to a company operating fisheries in the south.

A conservative estimate indicates that for a catch of 2000 sharks daily, at an average weight of 200 pounds, there would be 400,000 pounds of fish. As at least 50 per cent could be used for human consumption, we would have 200,000 pounds daily, or 73,000,000 pounds annually. Assuming that the market price could be set at 10 cents, we have a saving of $7,300,000.

Too Much Ceremony.
The battalion was resting beside the road toward the end of its 16-mile hike. After the weary marchers had eased their packs and sipped from their nearly empty canteens, they watched dispiritedly the energetic setting-up exercises being gone through by a strange outfit in a nearby field.

"What's that there gang?" inquired Private Banks of Oklahoma without enthusiasm.

"Infantry candidates' school," replied the corporal.

"Candidates' Infantry candidates?" exploded Banks. "My good gosh! Do you have to make application and be initiated to get into this mess nowadays?"—The Home Sector.

St. Rita.
St. Rita was canonized in 1900. She is called the saint of the impossible, and is generally pictured holding a bunch of roses. When she was dying, it was in the winter and cold, and she asked one of the nuns at her bedside to go to the garden to pick her a rose. Those about her bed thought that her mind was wandering, but one of them, as a matter of form, went to the garden, and, behold, on one of the bushes was a beautiful rose.

Simple Journalism.
The editor of the Bano (Africa) Daily News does not have trouble over such matters as circulation or the high cost of paper. When he gets a piece of news he smooths off some slabs of wood, writes up the story in his best editorial style, and then gives the slabs to his office boy, who runs off with them and hangs them in conspicuous places so that he who runs may read.

THEY'RE CHAMPION BITERS

Doctor Says Eskimos Just Bite Open Tin Cans.

Dr. E. H. Friesell told the Illinois Dental association at its meeting in Chicago that Eskimos have such powerful teeth that they never bother to use a can opener.

They merely bite off the top of the can.

Dr. Friesell is president-elect of the National Dental association. For years he has been collecting skulls of all races to study the teeth. He explained teeth could be best examined after death.

"The Eskimos have best teeth in the world," he said.

Eating Southwestern Dust.

Mayville, Ky.—A coating of red dust on roofs and vegetation here is believed to have been carried by the wind from southwestern states which were swept by a sandstorm. No such dirt is to be found in this section of the country.

THE STORY OF SMOCKS

The story of smocks is long already—and it is to be continued. Their popularity grows and has not reached its peak; hence designers are giving a great deal of attention to varying and elaborating this graceful garment. Just now crepe de chine and crepe georgette are often employed for making the smock, either of them providing a suitable background for rich embroideries and beautiful stitching done in silk or yarn or beads. Hand painting, outlined with silk floss, has made its appearance among the latest embellishments.

The smock shown here is a dark blue crepe de chine. About the bottom there is a border of embroidered grapes and leaves, in several colors. The neck is outlined with an embroidered band which is repeated at each side over the shoulders.

Sculptors in the Doldrums.

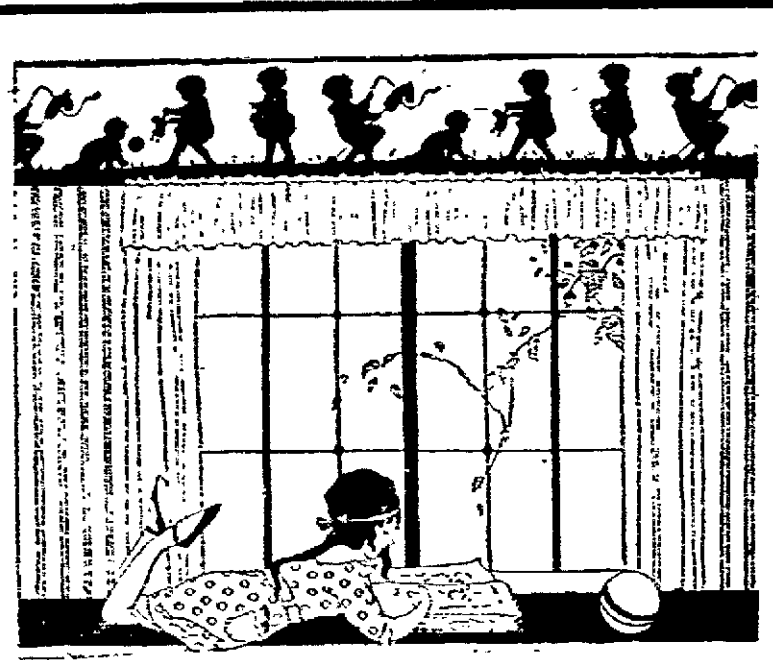

According to American Art News, the sculptors complain that there is little work at present in their line of endeavor, and even the leading men are "waiting." The commemorative war statues and patriotic groups that were to decorate cities, towns and cemeteries have not thus far materialized. The unsettled conditions of the country, they contend, which are holding up building, are accountable for the present "doldrums."

Railroad Solves Important Problem.

Bedford, Ind.—Officials of the Monon railroad quickly solved the housing problem for Jess Enoch, in charge of a section gang at Salem. The house occupied by Enoch and his family had been sold and there was not a vacant one in town, so the railroad sent a combination sleeping and dining car, which Enoch has transformed into a three-room bungalow.

How much should I give to make this a better world?

A BUSINESS man filled out his income tax report.

It showed an income so large that his tax was 53%. And his total gifts to church and charity for the year were $148.

Think of it—thousands spent for luxuries and pleasure for himself; and $148 to leave the world a little better than he found it!

Most of us do better than that; but not so very much better.

Our average daily gift for all church causes is——less than we spend for daily papers —less than a local telephone call —less than a third of the day's car fare —less than 3 cents a day

No wonder that 80% of the ministers of America are paid less than $20 a week. No wonder that the church hospitals turn away thousands of sick people a year. No wonder that China has only one doctor for every 400,000 people. No wonder that every church board and charity society is forever meeting deficits, forever passing the hat.

It isn't because we are selfish; it isn't because we don't want to help. It's just because no one has ever put up a great big program to us, and asked us to think of the work of the church in a systematic businesslike way.

The Interchurch World Movement represents the united program of thirty great denominations. They have surveyed their whole task; no business could have done it better.

They have budgeted their needs; no business could have a more scientific budget. They have united to prevent the possibility of waste and duplication. At least a million dollars will be saved by the fact that thirty individual campaigns are joined in one united effort.

And they come to the men and women who love America—to you—this week, asking you to use them as the channel through which a certain definite part of your income can be applied to making this a better world.

Only you can determine what part of your income that should be. The chart printed here is intended merely as a suggestion; it represents a scale of giving of 6%—or less.

Six per cent of your earning power, 15/16ths of your life for your own family needs, and 1/16th for your fellow men—is that more than you ought to give?

It's a good time right now to answer that question. We're passing through the world just once; how much better is the world going to be because you passed through?
